Hello All You Wonderful People,

Well, another month has zipped past. It doesn't seem like we could possibly be at the middle of the year.

During the month of May we got a lot of 'March Winds'. Now it looks like we might get some of those 'April Showers'.

At the beginning of this month (May) our home was totally surrounded by flowering trees, bushes and spring flowers. Now the Black Locust trees are in full bloom. It smells and looks really good here. When we look to the south it looks like hundreds of trees are snow covered.

I know a lot of you have had weather that wasn't any thing to joke about. I hope each and every one of you is okay and that all your friends and family are okay, too.

Now – about this mistake I made. When you look at the transfer for the Girl Quilt Block 02, you will see the HS in the middle of her cheerleading outfit. First of all, I thought I had taken that out when I sent it to the printer, so you could put your own school letters there. Second of all, the printer copied from the wrong side so that the letters didn't come out backwards when you look at the transfer (so when you iron it on it will be forward). So what some folks have done is to iron it on dark enough that they then paint the quilt block on the back so the letters are forward. Others have just cut out the letters before they iron the transfer on.

I will put a note in with the transfer to cut out the letters on her cheerleading top before ironing on the transfer – so you can put the school letters of your choice there. I hate to throw all those transfers out when it is such an easy fix. Do you all suppose that this will fix that problem?

I have been very pleased by the orders that have come in for the Flour Sack Towel Special. It always makes me feel good when I get one right.

Remember that this special (TS1 - $30.00) runs through the month of June.

I ironed the T4765 – 2009 Calendar on to a Mini Flag (P322) and it looked really good. This is another way to use that transfer. You don't have as much room to paint designs around it, but you can still use a big variety of transfers to dress it up and make each one of them different.

I really like this idea and I think you will, too. This would be great for those craft shows and gifts. Let's make it into a special! Mini Flag Calendar Special - $30.00 – this will include (5) P322 and (5) T4765. I'll run this Special for two months (June & July). Order under MFCS1 - $30.00.

Another thing that you could do is to put a large transfer down on the Mini Flag or Flour Sack Towel – paint it – then put the calendar transfer right over it. You have to remember that the under-lying transfer has to wind up being light enough in coloration that the black lettering on the calendar will show up.

There you have another way to use the T4765 – 2009 Calendar. You could also, use it on a t-shirt or sweatshirt (then people would see how long the paint stays on a shirt – until it wears out and beyond). This would, also, make a good gift or craft show item. It would definitely be different.

If you all like these ideas and buy lots of these transfers and Specials, I will do the 2010 Calendar Transfer earlier next year. The sales are what show me what you like. If I don't have sales on an item, then I know you don't like it, and I will stop doing whatever that is. If I have lots of sales, then I know that you like it and we carry on from there. So – if you buy it – I sell it, if you don't buy it – I drop it.

Recently I got a question on carrying Fairies. The gal wanted to know if I had any in the Line or had any old ones. Right after that Hallee brought me the quilt designs for the Fairies and Flowers. I thought that was definitely telling me I should put them in the Line right away. Fairies are very 'in' right now. I hope you like these.

It's a six (6) piece quilt so you can make it into a nice little throw, or put extra squares and strips in between and make it into a bigger quilt. Since it's a six (6) piece quilt set – that makes it $15.00. Order under FAF - $15.00.

I love them! I think they are just cuter that can be. I hope you like them too and order lots of them. (Another craft show item.)

You can, also, put them on shirts.

There will be a copy of the new '6-piece quilt' page at the end of this newsletter.

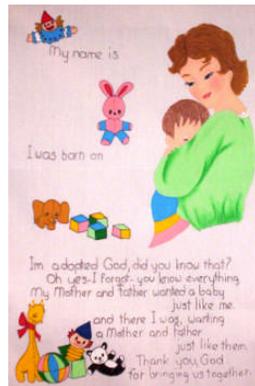

I'm hearing from a lot of you out there that are asking for more quilts. I hope you like this one and the (hopefully) two (2) Holiday Quilts (9-piece) that will be coming out next month.

Next month will be the 'Christmas in July' designs. I know you want to get started on those holiday designs, so I try to put them out starting in July to give you lots of time to work on them.

Transfers

T476-Rose Fence

T4767-Adoption

T4768-Flowers & Butterflies

T4760-Pansy Bouquet

I love the Rose Fence design. It's a pre-shaded transfer and is really very easy to do. It will go around the bottom of a shirt or skirt or on both ends of a dresser scarf (PP326). You could, also, place it around any of the tablecloths that we have in the Line (P1220/P1221/P1222/P1223) and it would look great.

There are so many kids out there that are being adopted today that they need something special just for them. The Adoption transfer can be put on a Mini Flag and the name and birth date can be filled in. I know they're special and this is just a little thing that can be done to show them that they are.

The skin tone and the hair can be easily changed on the Mom and/or the baby to make it more personal.

The Flowers & Butterflies can be used on just about anything – but it's another one that can be used on either end of the dresser scarf (P326), around a tablecloth (P1220/P1221/P1222/P1223) or on a skirt or shirt. It's easy to do and you can change the colors to match the room or the person.

The Pansy Bouquet has a circle around the bouquet that makes it perfect for a throw pillow cover (P1482/P1483). You can cut the outside ring off before you iron it on and it will go even more places.

Trying to figure out a Special for this month was really hard. All of the new transfers are just perfect to make a special out of. I think you will like what I came up with.

Monthly Special

Take the T4766 – Rose Fence and put it together with the Dresser Scarf (P326) and you have the Special for the month of June. The roses can be done in your favorite color or you can follow the chart. I really like them the way they are charted.

Classes Elsewhere

We have a new craft store carrying our products. See us at 'Crafty Folks' right on the Alaskan Highway in Taylor, British Columbia. They will be running workshops at the store so you can learn right there how to use the products and they will have the products for you to buy. The address is 10501 99th St., Taylor, BC. Call and register for your class today (250-789-3720) or just go in and look around. Lisa will be glad to see you.

I know I have others in British Columbia that order from me – this store might be just what you're looking for to pick up your products near you instead of waiting for them to come by Post.

We have a lot of dealer/instructors that have their own web sites now and more coming on-line all the time. When you're on the Web just put Ginger's Cameo in your search line and see how many you come up with. After you find them all – just check out the one nearest you and order. (You have to have your tax license # to get your discount from us to re-sell to others.)

We're also on EBay and Amazon.

We're getting better known all the time thanks to all of you out there. Keep up the good work!!!!

Monthly Quilt Blocks

You can buy all of these right now. As each quilt block of the month comes out it is added to the ones that are already out, so if you haven't start getting your quilt blocks of the month all along, you can catch up at any time.
